Turkey

Whether you are an art and history buff, an archaeology fond or a nature lover, enjoy going diving or skiing, Turkey offers endless possibilities all year round. Each area has its own personality, history, landscape, cuisine and has so much to offer to its visitors. It is not surprising that one trip to Turkey is never enough.

Tourism in Turkey is focused largely on a variety of historical sites, and on seaside resorts along its Aegean and Mediterranean Sea coasts. In the recent years, Turkey has also become a popular destination for culture, spa, and health care tourism. Tourism sector has undergone an accelerated rate of growth in the past three decades and attracted more than 28.6 million foreign tourists in 2010.

Turkey is also a magnificent place for meetings, incentive and congresses where Europe and Asia meets. Istanbul has hosted many important international fairs and congresses in recent years and has successfully organized international conferences such as the United Nations Habitat Conference, NATO Summit, Formula 1, Turkish-Arabic Business Forum, IMF Meeting. The city has proved to the whole world that it has the necessary infrastructure and the technical hardware.
